Organizational Excellence

USAID Joint Meeting of Senior Managers & Foreign Service National (FSN) Committee

AMA Consulting LLC engaged in an empowering initiative with USAID Nigeria, focusing on FSN Empowerment through comprehensive on-site meetings and training sessions. The consultancy highlighted the active engagement and meaningful input from Senior Managers and the FSN Committee, emphasizing the importance of cross-cultural competence training for all staff. Recommendations included defining key concepts like "Empowerment" and "Leadership," creating in-house leadership training, and collecting best practices from across USAID. This case exemplifies AMA's approach to fostering organizational excellence and strategic development, further establishing its leadership in federal consulting.

USACE ERDC Strategic Thinking and Planning Course for ERDC Board of Directors

AMA Consulting LLC delivered a strategic planning course for the USACE ERDC Board of Directors in Vicksburg, MS, enhancing their strategic thinking and planning skills. The course focused on strategic leadership functions, fostering collaboration, leveraging collective talents, and applying DoD strategies to business units. This initiative underscores AMA's expertise in strategic planning facilitation and its impact on organizational leadership development.

Program Success

Education, Office of Elementary and Secondary Education Program Support

AMA Consulting LLC, as a subcontractor to Chickasaw Health Services and CNI Health Services, significantly enhanced the Department of Education's Office of Elementary and Secondary Education (OESE) through specialized technical assistance, organizational development, and professional learning services. Our role included performing training needs assessments, recruiting skilled instructors, and implementing a blend of instructor-led and virtual training sessions. The comprehensive training curriculum encompassed key areas such as Technical Assistance Framework, Grants Management, and Continuous Process Improvement, among others.

CFPB 508 Support Services

AMA Consulting LLC, as a subcontractor, played a pivotal role in aiding the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB)'s Office of Minority and Women Inclusion (OMWI) to achieve Section 508 compliance. Our comprehensive service suite included training needs assessments, instructor recruitment, and the delivery of both instructor-led and virtual training sessions, focusing on essential topics like Section 508 awareness, grants management, and data analysis. Additionally, AMA was instrumental in enhancing event management services, establishing Section 508 processes across CFPB offices, and ensuring digital accessibility. This collaboration underscores AMA's expertise in technical assistance and organizational development, marking a significant stride towards inclusive technology practices within the CFPB.

Information Management Support

USDA Forest Service, ORMS Program Support Services

AMA Consulting LLC's contract with the USDA Forest Service, Office of Regulatory and Management Services (ORMS) demonstrated their skill in comprehensive program management across six essential services: Records Management, Forms Support, Controlled Correspondence, FOIA, FACA, and Help Desk Services. Each service showcased AMA's ability to adeptly navigate complex regulatory landscapes and integrate technology-driven solutions, employing tools such as Microsoft 365 and Adobe Experience Manager to meet a variety of agency demands. This experience underscores AMA's expertise in delivering well-coordinated, technology-enabled support services essential for governmental operations.

Education, Information Technology Accessibility Program (ITAP)

In fulfilling the Department of Education's accessibility requirements, AMA Consulting LLC provided a comprehensive array of services to ensure compliance with Sections 508 and 504. By deploying skilled professionals including senior and junior testers, a needs assessment expert, and a project manager, AMA effectively executed document remediation, training, and policy development. Our strategic planning and operational excellence significantly advanced the Department's assistive technology capabilities, achieving a record number of document remediations and accessibility trainings. This initiative demonstrated AMA's expertise in specialized talent recruitment and retention, and their ability to streamline FOIA request responses while upholding regulatory compliance.
